

Education and Collaborations

Courses: Ayurveda Courses. Open to all

Listed courses are open to all and can be taken for credits or audit

Courses taken for credit, after completing 162 credits, are eligible for on- hands training at collaborating medical schools of India for further certification.

Consciousness & Meditation: 4-week/ Weekend Open to all

Intensive for self exploration and healing. The course provides tools for exploring consciousness, understanding power of mind and self and taking charge of ones own health, healing and wellness. Call for details: 860-561-4857

Excursion Tours (Cultural Herbal Spiritual) Open to all

Educational excursion tours are conducted periodically and are. Announced separately

Lectures by Dr. Guha: Open to all

Nationally and internationally on various aspects of Ayurveda and its application in modern medicine and science.

Are announced separately- also check- <http://casc.uchc.edu>.

U'CONN School of Medicine: AYURVEDA PROGRAM at U'CONN SCHOOL OF MEDICINE <http://casc.uchc.edu>.

Medical School Electives:

Medical School (MS):
1 & 2 Year, 4-credits

Understanding Ayurveda: The Ancient Art of Healing

Course introduces students to the principles and practices of Ayurveda and Ayurvedic Medicine

Medical School:
4th yr; 4-credits

Ayurvedic: The Whole System of Medicine

Students receive hands on experience in Ayurvedic Medicine at the participating Ayurvedic Medical School(s) in India. The program is available to medical students around US through UCONN School of Medicine.

Residents

Ayurvedic Clinical Assessment Program is available to Residence in training at UCONN Health Center

Placements

Hands on training program at collaborating Ayurvedic Medical Schools are available for qualified students and trainees

Workshops & Programs : (CME) & CASC

<http://casc.uchc.edu>

Sponsored by The UCONN School of Medicine Continued Medical Education - Open to All

Ayurvedic Clinical Assessment Program (162 credits)

Provides in-depth knowledge of principles & practices of Ayurvedic Medicine, Ayurvedic differential diagnosis, comparative understanding between Ayurvedic medicine and western medical system.

Ayurvedic Mental and Spiritual Health: (162 credits)

Provides understanding of Ayurvedic concept of Mind (Manas) and its role in mental health. Addresses how Ayurvedic Philosophy and spirituality incorporates scientific applications in practice.

Ayurvedic Preventative and Nutritional Medicine: (162 credits) (Open to all)

Ayurvedic principles and practices& its application on Life style, nutrition and creating balance for the maintenance of total health

Connecticut Center for Massage Therapy: Massage Therapy Training Program

CME CREDITS

Advance Course in Ayurvedic massage therapy trains licensed therapist in the area of Ayurveda

International Collaborations (education)

National Institute of Ayurveda
Jaipur, India

KMLP Ayurvedic School of Medicine
Bombay, India

BHU
Banaras, India

University of Puna (since 2008 Puna University, Department of Ayurveda no longer exists)
Puna, India